Money For Jeep From War Bonds and Stamps

Nine hundred forty-four dollars sixty cents ($944.60) worth of bonds and stamps were sold by Mrs. Faye Hartwell Atkinson and Mr. Brad Rowland at the door of the High school auditorium, Tuesday night, as the Elementary School presented its first Victory concert. About fifty pupils under the direction of Miss Esther Peck, Mrs. A. D. Barry and Miss Geraldine Callicoate, participated in the presentation.

This is enough money to buy one good American jeep.

Brother J. A. Young Makes Fruit Gifts

It is a wonderful life for a man to have gone through the years that our friend, Rev. J. A. Young has witnessed. Now in his ripe old age he spends his time enjoying the blessings that have come his way. One of these is his Valley Fruit Farm. Just this week from McAllen, a number of his Hamlin friends received gifts of choice fruits, oranges grapefruit, and other varieties by express. The Herald force counts ourselves lucky to be numbered in Brother Young's circle of friends. We thank him for our nice basket of fruit. Real joy comes to this man to be able to share with his friends, what has been given him by Providence.

50th Anniversary Of Singing Convention

Beginning at 10 A. M., April 4, the first Sunday in April, the Jones County Singing Convention will celebrate its 50th anniversary in the High school auditorium in Anson, Texas, the permanent home of the convention.

In April, 1893, the convention met for the first time in Anson and was organized. Since that time, the old time singers say it has not failed to meet once each year on the first Sunday in April. Until two years ago, the meeting place was passed around to various cities in Jones County. However, at that time, the convention voted to make Anson the permanent home of the convention.

In times past this has been considered one of the largest conventions of its kind in all West Texas, on a few occasions, drawing crowds running into the four thousand bracket. From many reports coming in a very large crowd is expected this year considering the times.

This is one of the principal features of the Anson Chamber of Commerce, which is prepared to take care of all guests. Those delegates attending the convention from out of Jones County will be guests to lunch of the Chamber of Commerce.

Jones County 4-H Club Boys Selecting Calves

Wayne Ashburn, who showed the grand champion calf at the Jones County Livestock Show during each of the last three years, will select another calf this week to feed for the shows that might be held next year. Wayne has made an outstanding success feeding calves and he wants to feed one more so that he might win permanent possession of the Cowboy Reunion Trophy offered to the boy showing the grand champion calf each year at the county show. Wayne has won the cup two years but must win it three in a row to keep it permanently.

Robert Spurgeon of Noodle is buying 4 feeder calves to feed out in the dry lot. Robert is not shooting for the shows but does intend to produce the most and best beef at the lowest cost possible. He has bundle feed and grain on hand and has enough pasture grass to carry the calves until he can get some sudan ready.

Many other boys will be buying calves during the next few weeks.

Mrs. T. B. Bevan of Checotah, Oklahoma, is here for an extended stay with her daughter, Mrs. Paul Bevan. She accompanied her daughters-in-law, Mrs. B. J. Reynolds, who returned to Checotah after a few days' visit.

Mrs. Tom McGuire Died Wednesday

One of Hamlin's beloved pioneer women, Mrs. Tom McGuire, passed away at her home on Jackson Avenue, at 5:30 Wednesday, March 31. Her age was 69 years and eleven months. She was born in Bell Buckle, Tenn., May 1, 1873, and was a baby when her parents came to Texas. They settled in Bell County, where she grew to womanhood and was married to Tom McGuire in 1892 and came to Jones County in 1898. They acquired a farm home near Neinda, which place was retained till their death.

Mrs. McGuire's husband died in 1911 and in 1919 she moved into Hamlin, where she was known as an outstanding Christian woman, faithful to her church, sympathetic and co-operative as a neighbor. Her health had been failing fast the past year, but with unusual determination she kept going.

Surviving are three children, Mrs. Mark A. Bond, of Ballinger, Texas; Mrs. Ina Tims of Abilene and T. Walker McGuire of Hamlin. There are five grandchildren, David, Thomas and Clayton Bond, Roy Edwin Tims and Bobbie Tims, and two great-grandchildren.

Five brothers and four sisters survive. They are John and Mike Walker of Hamlin, Will O. Walker, Brownwood; Sam Walker, Waco, and Shep Walker of Vernon. The sisters are Mrs. Sam Mitchell, Corona, California; Mrs. R. C. Hayes, Hamlin, and Mrs. Parilee Moore, Rogers, Texas.

Mrs. McGuire had been a Christian since early girlhood. She at first was a member of the Baptist church but since 1908 she had been a faithful worker in the Methodist church.

Funeral services were conducted at the Methodist church, Thursday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock, by the pastor, Rev. J. E. Harrell and Rev. H. E. East of the Baptist church. The body was placed to rest in the Neinda cemetery by the side of her husband. The Barrow Funeral Directors were in charge of interment.

Attending the funeral were a number of women from Abilene, who make up an organization known as the "Mothers of the Sons of the Lost Battalion." Mrs. McGuire's grandson, Roy Edwin Tims, is one of the boys lost in Java. An appropriate floral design, with a service flag of one star was prominent at the funeral, representing the grandson so far away.

Mrs. Florence Morgan enjoyed a visit from her brother, W. R. McMillan of Tyler and his daughter, Mrs. Lamar Splawn of Dallas. Mrs. O. R. Southerland, also of Dallas, came with them and is spending the week with her sister, Mrs. Morgan.

J. W. Mahaffey Died Near McCaulley Mon.

This is in memory of J. W. Mahaffey, a citizen of the first rank of Fisher county for 35 years, who passed away at the home of his son, Tom Mahaffey, seven miles north-east of Roby, on Monday, March 22, 1943.

Mr. Mahaffey was born in Alabama on January 20, 1869 and was 74 years, 2 months and 2 days of age when death came. He came to Texas as a mere boy and had lived in Fisher county since 1907. He was married to Matilda Pennington at Comanche, and the survivors include the wife and one daughter, Mrs. L. G. Bailey of Route 1, Slaton, Texas, and two sons, J. T. Mahaffey of Route 2, Roby and J. R. Mahaffey of McCaulley.

Mr. Mahaffey had suffered for about thirteen years but during all this time he kept a cheery spirit and loved his friends and took an interest in everything he was able to do. He was a member of the Baptist church from early manhood, and those who knew him best will say a good husband, father and citizen has passed.

Funeral services were conducted at the Baptist church in McCaulley on Tuesday, March 23, by the pastor, Rev. Dick and Rev. Reed of Abilene. The Barrow Company of Hamlin had charge of interment in the McCaulley Cemetery.

Navy's Quotas Opened For WAVES, SPARS And Marine Reserves

Coinciding with the visit to West Texas of Ensign Katherine Brook, WAVES, SPARS and Women's Marine Reserve recruiting officer, Abilene Navy recruiters this week announced opening of unlimited quotas for enlistment of 17-year-old youths and men between the ages of 38 and 50 in the Navy or Naval Reserve.

Meanwhile, the itinerary of Ensign Brook, women's organizations recruiter, was announced for this area to include Abilene, at the post office all day, Saturday, April 3rd.

For the first time since the presidential order banning voluntary enlistments of men between the ages of 18 and 38, the quotas on 17-year-olds and men 38 to 50 is now wide open.

Especially needed in the 38 to 50 age group are men with construction experience to enlist as petty officers in the Navy construction regiments. Open to those in the 17-year-old bracket is training in the Navy schools throughout the nation for 50 different technical trades.

THIS WEEK

A LITTLE BIT ABOUT

This

AND A LITTLE BIT OF

THAT

—The Governor of Texas has designated the week of April 4th to 10th as "Health and Clean-up Week." Health and cleanliness go hand in hand. Generally clean surroundings in any place promote better feelings, and thus ward off "let-downs" that lead to serious illness, sometimes....do you see anything around where you live that needs cleaning up before the rains, hot weather and weeds come? Do you?

—Let's ask a few questions this week....Do you know what type of blood you have?...It is important to know about your blood....your blood might save the other fellow, and remember the types must be the same....if a call comes for type 2 and yours is the same....there's your chance. See?

—How do you feel about the "Skip-a-Year-Plan" of paying income taxes?....Do you think this government can pay its big war bill and skip a year?....that stuff sounds like a fellow skipping a meal when he is hungry to save enough to pay for a meal twice as costly.

—What do you think about a man serving in the United States Army and also a member of the Legislature?....General Marshall says, boys, you can't serve me and Old Man Texas at the same time, so get out of my army or out of the Texas Legislature.

—Now here's a question that covers a lot of ground....What particular thing within the financial reach of Hamlin's community that you would propose for the welfare of all concerned?....(forgetting the dollar for your self)....What have you?....Does Hamlin have everything it needs as a community?

—No one is justifiable in wanting something for his community that can not be afforded financially, any more than to want an impossible about the home.

—Ask your question in this column....it may not be answered, but you may have the satisfaction of asking. For example, "Why can't we fish in Hamlin's New Lake?"—Doke McMahon. Question should be brief and signed.

Miss Mable Fields came home for the week end from the air craft training she is taking in Ft. Worth.

ANNUAL REPORT TO TELEPHONE USERS

A Summary of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company's 1942 Annual Report, Recently Issued

"PEARL HARBOR" was only three weeks old as 1942 started, but already the telephone system had felt the first of war's pressing demands.

Most metals vital to war are also vital to telephone service. During the year we were able to get, for example, only a tenth of the copper normally needed.

Telephone people somehow had to make this bare trickle of materials meet demands for entire telephone systems at Army camps and Navy bases, for service to new war industries, for new telephones in thousands upon thousands of homes.

Service held up rather well

The skill and "know how" of these people were in most cases equal to the job. During the year the company gained 123,689 telephones. It ended the year with 1,867,751 telephones in service. But in many cities, lines and equipment simply could not serve all who wanted telephones.

The quality and speed of telephone service held up rather well during the year. There were exceptions, of course. On many crowded long distance lines delays were unavoidable.

It was inevitable, in such a year, that some new high marks as well as some low marks should be set.

For example, the money taken in by the company for its services was 120 million dollars—11 per cent above 1941. That seems a lot of money.

Expenses mount faster than revenue

But expenses climbed even faster. They jumped from a little over 88 million dollars in 1941 to more than 101 million dollars—an increase of 15 per cent. Most of this increase was a result of sharply higher payrolls and taxes. Taxes grew from slightly less than 20 million dollars in 1941 to more than 24 million dollars.

The result was that the company matched its high record with a low.

Earning rate lower than in depression

The company's earnings for the year were at the rate of 4.4 per cent on the money it has put into the buildings, wires, and equipment needed to furnish telephone service—a lower rate of return than was earned at the lowest point of the depression.

On the whole, telephone service was better in 1942 than telephone people had dared hope it would be. This was due in large part to the competence and fine spirit of service of the telephone men and women in the Southwest. It was due also to the understanding and sympathetic co-operation of the people who use the service.

Now What?

Wherever the Hamlin soldier boy is, most of them get the Herald, and one thing we find that they like is to hear what somebody back home thinks about this war we Americans are in. Hence we deem it well to picture at least a little each week how the god of war is doing his work.

Boys, you have heard a lot about the Maginot Line, and recently much about the Mareth Line. Well, such lines are not worth a flip in this modern war. They are just like the big battleships (pardon us fellows if you are on one). When a big plane comes over with a blockbuster, "Whiff" they go up in dust. Meaning to say that the English and the Americans are still chasing old Rommel up along the coast of Africa, despite the vaunted Mareth Line. Africa is all but in the hands of the English, Americans and the French, and it is well, for Africa stands across the pathway of commerce between two worlds, and he who controls Africa controls the destiny of two continents. It is a cinch that Germany and Italy are finished in Africa.

WHAT NEXT? Just before saying "next" there are several days yet of bitter fighting in Tunisia, but the old desert fox is crouching before his last hole. While this is true, the bombings of German and Italian towns by the combined air forces of England and America is beyond what the fondest hopes of distraught England ever expected when she was going through such agony. So as this April starts, we may expect bigger things before June, and bigger and more telling progress from June to December. We are on our way and the Germans, Italians and Japs know it.

Down From Canada

Last Saturday we were surprised to hear the voice of Arice Jones. We heard his voice and we said, "Why we did not know one could hear so easily the distance from Hamlin to Peace River, Canada." But Arice said "Heck, I'm here in Hamlin." So that was it. Arice had slipped in from the North Country on Monday took his wife and baby Morris Lee by complete surprise in Fort Worth, and then they all came on up to visit his mother, Mrs. M. S. Jones, and sister, Mrs. Jay Fitzgerald in Hamlin.

Arice has been in Canada all winter, first at Edmonton, and then moved on north with the Bechtel, Price & Callahan Construction Co., 500 miles farther north into the unbroken, roadless ices. They are blazing a way to a big oil field north of Ft. Norman. Evidently he had come through the "refrigeration" in good shape, not a sign of frost bite on his ears, and he's fat and jolly as ever. After spending a few days with his family he will start back and plow north again. His collection of pictures shows they are opening a wild, trackless territory, over iced lakes and rivers. We asked Arice if he was making any money. He said, "Heck yes, but they send all they pay me back to my bank, except $15.00 per month." Now look on the maps. Find Edmonton and somewhat northwest see Ft. Norman, 1,100 miles farther north and you'll see where this old Hamlin, Jones County "Ball catcher" is digging his way to.

Mrs. J. W. Alexander of Burkburnett is here visiting her daughter, Mrs. Harry Dodson, who has been ill the past week.

A Pied Piper Chaplain Meets A Pied Piper Bombardier In Africa

This heading and this introductory is to show how the fortunes of war will bring young fellows together in far off battle-torn lands.

Early last fall Ye Editor chanced to run onto two prim, snappy looking soldiers in South Hamlin. They were the Raley brothers, and one of them was Chaplain Truman Raley, who had just received orders to report to New York, with all indications that he was "bound for somewhere." This past week we received our first letter from this former Pied Piper and Simmons University football player, now in a distant land, performing the duties of a Chaplain among the boys who once were his school pals and friends. Chaplain Raley's home is near Tuxedo, and his people and friends are all the more anxious about him now that the fighting has started in North Africa in dead earnest.

But let's read his letter—not so very exciting but highly interesting:

Station Hospital,
North Africa, March 7
Editor Hamlin Herald:

"It has been many months since I have seen you and the many friends at Hamlin. During this time much water has run under the bridge, or perhaps I shall say the 'keel'."

"Am permitted to say that I was in England, and a quite enjoyable visit I had there. I saw many of the places of historic interest, such as Washington's ancestral home, Buckingham Palace, the King's home . . . traveled through Shakespeare's part of the Island; looked on the ruins of Coventry and Bristol, and saw the place where Bunyan was imprisoned. England was very beautiful in the fall, but the people said that we should see it next spring . . . as though we would be there in the spring. If her country-side, hedged lanes and beautiful gardens are as lovely in comparison, then I can understand the great poet's wish when he said, 'Ah, to be in England, now that spring is here.'"

"But 'of all sad words' and such, destiny was planning another trip for me. This time it was to help clean up North Africa. Some one told me once that he thought the work of Chaplains was easy. In fact, not so very long ago, he was considered as just an appendage to the rest of the army."

"I wish everyone could see the part chaplains are playing in the war effort. On every battle front we hear of their deeds. Not permitted to carry a gun, nevertheless they are often found in the thick of the fight, dragging a wounded lad to cover or trying to stop the flow of blood from shell-torn flesh, always ready with a word of spiritual comfort or consideration.

"Since my particular work is a hospital unit, I never face the dangers of the line, nor the thrills. Personally I had rather be up there with the other Texans, or in the air with Terrell and the rest."

"I am not complaining, for my job has its compensations. Some time ago I was making my rounds visiting the fellows, when some one tapped me on the shoulder, saying 'I think I know you. Aren't you Truman Raley?' I turned and received as pleasant surprise as I have experienced in the army. It was Lieut. J. B. Terrell. How glad I was for the opportunity to chat with a fellow Pied Piper, and the next few days was like visiting at home, except, well . . . some mighty big people in our lives couldn't be present!

In a few days he rejoined his squadron leaving me only a memory of our meeting 4,000 miles from home. That's the way it is here, they come and go. How many homes would like to trade places with me to see their 'Johnnie' as he comes here for a brief stay, then on and out again to do his utmost for Liberty and Freedom? (The story of Lieutenant Terrell, the Pied Piper who rides up front, carrying the ball in a glass-ed-in nose, is well known in Hamlin, as he enjoyed a visit here some time ago and is now happy and well helping the inexperienced men learn bombing down at Shreveport, La.)

Chaplain Raley, the Pied Piper who carries his Bible and not guns into battle, is doing something equally as meritorious, and his friends in the Hamlin territory are proud of his willingness to serve in the chaplain capacity. In closing his letter he says:

"Give my best regards to Hamlin. Hope we can end this mess soon so we can all have two cups of coffee for breakfast and all the meat we want. Write and tell me the latest about Hamlin. May God bless you all."

Truman Raley

(EDITORIAL COMMENT:) It is appropriate here, to say that recently the people of this section of the sation are learning much more about the work and importance of chaplains in our armed forces. Like the general run of pastors and preachers back home, they vary in ability and devotion and spiritual power. We believe the present day chaplain has one of the great chances of his life to serve the spiritual needs of his fellow man.

The people of Hamlin had a chance to learn a little of the work the chaplain does in the camps near home, when Chaplain David H. Barnhill preached in a local church. His heart goes out to the boys who are far from home and in strange surroundings. Rev. Barnhill related instances Sunday how the boy misses home, father, mother and the old home church influence. How the chaplain can mix and mingle with the men to encourage them in so many ways. To meet a sympathetic chaplain, even though the man had but little to do with preachers when he was at home, there's something the chaplain satisfies. Especially is the voice of the chaplain welcome when a fellow is sick and hospitalized.

SAMPLE OF SECRETS

Credit Negro Staff Sgt. Charles O'Quinn, of Sweetwater, who writes his pals and his boss in the Sweetwater branch of the International Harvester Co. (We clipped this from a daily).

"Dear Gang: I am ok. Arrived safely after leaving where we were."

"We were coming from there to here. We couldn't tell whether we'd arrive here or not. But here we are and not there."

"The weather here is just as it is at this season, but of course quite unlike the weather where we were before we came here. After leaving by what we left by, we had a good trip. The whole thing is quite a new experience here because it's not like what it's like where we were before we left for here."

"Guess it's about time to stop this too newsy letter before I give away much valuable information. Take it easy there so we won't worry here, or there, to somewhere some place." (This reported bonafide).

— S & S —

Pvt. Henry Epsy, has come home from Camp McCoy, Wis., where he had been serving in the Engineers. This young man is really young yet. The army gave him his discharge without his request because he was just a bit too old for the young chaps. Epsy is a World War I volunteer and War II volunteer. He had over five years in the first enlistment, from 1916 to 1921. He says he can go to a defense plant and get high wages but he prefers a good place on a farm.

Wilson Crow, who is rated as Baker Second Class, says they have moved him back from the sea in a very beautiful country in California and he likes it fine. Crow is in the Navy, you see.

— S & S —

Boyd T. Farrow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Farrow has finally gone into service for winning the war. He and his parents went to Fort Worth and he left on Wednesday of last week for Magruder, Va., to be a part of the Seabees. Boyd had spent two years in Consolidated Aircraft, California, and for several months has been trying to get away so he could get into something. His experience fits him well for the Seabees service. He is rated as Storekeeper, 3-C. This makes a pretty good layout and he has signed up for overseas work after six weeks training.

— S & S —

Weldon Hudson is now a Corporal at Camp Beale, Calif. He is taming the Jeeps, according to his reports. He says a Jeep beat a mule, at least they can't kick.

— S & S —

A way over in New Guinea is an old Hamlin boy, Charles Prater, who now is rated a Sergeant. Charles writes enthusiastic letters home but says 13 or 14 months across the ocean is a long time. This is one of our kids who hardly got into uniform till he was on his way to whip the Japs.

Mrs. Mac Brundage returned last week from a visit of two weeks with her daughter, Miss Maxine, who is attending the Chicago Conservatory of Music. While there Mrs. Brundage had the opportunity to attend a recital in which the Oxford Music Guild presented Miss Brundage.

Be Quick To Treat Bronchitis

Chronic bronchitis may develop if your cough, chest cold, or acute bronchitis is not treated and you cannot afford to take a chance with any medicine less potent than Creomulsion which goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germs laden phlegm and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes.

Creomulsion blends beechwood creosote by special process with other time tested medicines for coughs. It contains no narcotics.

No matter how many medicines you have tried, tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough, permitting rest and sleep, or you are to have your money back. (A.C.V.)

Santa Fe gives right-of-way to Victory Gardens

Now Santa Fe employees do war work in their hours off duty too!

They're grabbing spades and tilling fertile stretches near their homes, along their railroad's 13,199 miles of right-of-way.

They're raising fresh, vitamin-packed vegetables their nation needs to win a war.

Santa Fe—all out to win—gives right-of-way to troops and victory-winning freight . . . moving millions of men, and tens of millions of tons of vital food, raw materials and finished products—swiftly and surely to where they're needed now.

Santa Fe locomotives, cars, tracks and men are all working in their country's service. And now the Santa Fe right-of-way itself steps into victory uniform!

And Santa Fe people—already working hard, and buying war bonds—like this Victory Garden scheme—this chance to do one more thing for victory!

Santa Fe goes all the way, for the U.S.A.!

Jones County farmers have rejoined the ranks of organized agriculture through the establishment of a Subordinate Grange at Anson on March 25th. With this move they have joined hands with more than 800,000 dues paying members of the Grange, which operates in 37 states. Local Granges, State Granges, and the National Grange, have been striving for better agricultural conditions for more than 75 years through a strong legislative, educational and social program. Many are the accomplishments of the Grange in behalf of agriculture including rural free delivery.

Mr. Harold W. Gaulrapp of Dallas Master of the Texas State Grange, was in charge of the organization meeting sponsored by leading farmers and the agricultural agencies of the county. Mr. Spurgeon Reeves was elected as temporary chairman and Mr. Taylor Owens temporary secretary with Mr. Tom Ashburn as temporary program chairman. The permanent officers will be elected on April 8th when another meeting of the Grange will be held.

The First BAPTIST CHURCH

We are glad to be back in Hamlin, after being away in a revival at Hobbs, N. M. The Lord gave us a good revival; some forty made professions of faith in Christ. Others united with the church by letter and some rededicated their lives.

Are you planning to be in church Sunday? If not, you are neglecting the greatest institution for good in the world. You are taking part in continuing the conditions which brought about the national perils we now face. The quickest and surest way out of this maze of difficulties is by the way of the Cross of Jesus Christ. Try being in all services Sunday. The hearty handshakes of God's people, the spiritual atmosphere in His church, and the message of truth from His Word—all of this should make you better able to meet your individual problems the following week.

POT SHOTS FROM M'CAULLEY

— BY GEO. DARDEN —

Mr. and Mrs. Orvis Hunter and children of Dallas spent last week end in the home of Miss Ruth and Melvin Hunter.

The sun grins of the farmers have become broad smiles since the two and one-half inch rain in this vicinity. If the sun continues to shine this week we shall see a lot of farming take place in this neck of the woods.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Gilbert of Longworth were Sunday visitors in McCauley. Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert are formerly of Kent county and were neighbors of this scribe twenty-five years ago.

Thanks to W. E. Maberry of Welch, Texas, for a year's subscription to the Herald.

The McCauley Baptist church has been undergoing repairs for the past two weeks and it's going to take three or four hundred dollars to pay the bill—A hint to the wise is sufficient. We hope.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Eivens and daughter of Lubbock were visiting his mother and other relatives in McCauley last week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Nall and son and Mrs. L. B. Miers and daughter of Slaton were visiting relatives and friends in this community over the week end.

Billie Max Waldrop was home over the week end and a friend, C. E. Parker, also of Abilene, visited in the E. C. Waldrop home.

Buddy Shields, grandson of Mr.

and Mrs. Frank Johnson, is making his home with his grandparents and attending the McCauley school.

Miss Gertie Mason and Mrs. R. L. Miers were shopping in Sweetwater one day of last week.

C. D. Jones has purchased a tractor and has rented the Dr. Bynum farm which joins the townsite on the north.

J. I. Parker has purchased a new John Deere tractor. J. I., like the rest of us, likes rubber tires, but there is a war on and his new tractor has steel wheels and after, all, steel wheels are fine compared to FOX HOLES.

There will be a trustee election in McCauley Saturday, April 3rd. It is the duty of every patron to come in and vote. Three trustees are to be elected and members of the P.-T. A. urge you to vote.

Lavena Sue Maberry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Frank Maberry, underwent surgery in a Rotan hospital last week. Reports are that she is doing fine.

Sergeant W. B. Hendon, son of Mrs. Lee Hendon, is home on a ten days leave from Aberdeen, Maryland.

Thanks to W. F. Davison for a year's subscription to the Herald.

Mrs. Frank Maberry hands us three dollars for three subscriptions to the Herald and she is sending two of them to her sons, Marvin in Dallas and Pfc. Jack Maberry, who is stationed at Cherry Point, S. C. Thanks, and we know the boys will enjoy the news from the old home town.

Mrs. O. D. McFerrin of Mt. Vernon, Texas, is spending this week in the home of Mrs. Etta Stephenson.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Stephenson of Rotan spent last Sunday with Mrs. Etta Stephenson.

Mrs. Cyril Brown and Miss Verna Lee Wishert from Dayton, Ohio, are back in McCauley for a few weeks with home folks.

Mrs. J. T. Rhoten was hurt by a cow while milking and has been taking treatments in a Rotan hospital.

Mrs. Jack Johnson tells us that her brother, Earl Rhoten, likes the air corps fine and is now stationed in Reno, Nevada.

Sunday school at both the Baptist and Methodist churches will begin at 10:00 A. M. next Sunday.

22 Boy Scouts were out for their weekly meeting in the L. H. Boyd pasture last Monday night. It would not hurt a thing for more of the dads to meet with the boys. You will be surprised at the fun you will have and besides, the boys will be glad you came.

Gloria Baker and Doris Brown are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Brown and Lawrence Griffin.

Juanita Holland is home from Cleveland, Ohio.

Eloise Brown has joined the WAAC.

COMMENT NO. 1—Freedom from want is the one main objective that the people are going to work toward after this war. No world conflict will likely ever happen if the citizens of all the world have security. Hungry women and children, and the fear of hunger makes man want to kill. In the past, there have been too few that owned all of the wealth of the world. There must be in the future a plan worked out by our leaders that will guarantee a living without the fear of seeing man's family do without the very necessities of life.

Sweat shops in the past have made millions for capital. Men who have made their bread by the sweat of the brow were making millions for a select few in the meantime. Labor should be made partners with capital. Labor should share the profits of huge organizations. When 50- or 60 men in the United States own all or a large part of the wealth, then it's time there is something done about the distribution of the wealth of these United States. Organized labor has made great strides in the past few years and organized labor has most nearly done away with the sweat shops, but still there is much to be done and when organized labor gets rid of a few racketeers and when capital is finally made to realize that we can have peace only when the people are guaranteed a right to work and share the profits, then will the peoples of the earth settle down in peace and security. Every measure aiming at the prevention of economic insecurity must be prosecuted to the full. Government should provide work for adults who are willing and able to work, if private industry is unable to do so. Appropriate measures
